

Mistaken Identity

Nestling Hummingbird

Fledgling Hummingbirds

Nestling doves (bottom) are often mistaken for baby hummingbirds

Baby Killdeer (right)
are often mistaken for
